FROM THE STEERING COMMITTEE

I was surprised and hopeful when the newspaper reported that Roberta Actenberg was running for mayor of San Francisco. Surprised that she would take on the powerful Willie Brown in the primary (okay, he hasn't yet "announced" but everyone thinks he's running) and hopeful that she believes she can get the kind of support needed to win. Wouldn't it be incredible to have a lesbian mayor of San Francisco? The truth is that the city by the bay has been badly mismanaged and desperately needs an administrator/mayor with Roberta's skills. She has support from her years as a Supervisor and the talent to get the job done. She is a bright, experienced, and a credible politician who is, by the way, a lesbian.

Will we be there for her? What do we have to gain from working to have a lesbian elected as mayor of San Francisco? So much! It would advance our "gay" agenda.

In a recent article by Lester Olmstead-Rose, Director of Community United Against Violence, he wrote:

"There is a gay agenda. The gay agenda includes equality under the law; the right to a job on the basis of ability, with protection against prejudice; the right to housing and public accommodations, again with protection from prejudice; the right to full participation in the civil, social and political life of the country; and something approaching either acceptance or tolerance, depending on who is defining the agenda."

Yes, a lesbian mayor of San Francisco would definitely advance our agenda. There would be no denying her. She would be so credible. And we will feel such pride, for her and for ourselves.

Visualize what it will be like and then identify what that vision would be worth to you. Are we willing to help make it happen? Do you believe in the gay agenda? Acceptance for us would mean that we would never again hesitate before "coming out" and that our lover would be accepted as our true life partner in all legal and social areas.

What is it worth to us? Will we make it happen?

SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS -JUNE-JULY

Change, change, change. We can't seem to keep a facilitator for the Single Connection. Now our congratulations go to Debbie and her honey on their coupling. Our sincere thanks to Debbie for her work with the Singles Connection and our thanks for her willingness to co-facilitate the Metaphysical SIG. A warm welcome to Misty as the new facilitator of the Single's Group!

Lise, a longtime member of SACWN and TOP 10 facilitator as well, will be joining her partner Sue in Oroville later this month. Angie and Mary are hosting a Potluck BBQ (see Top 10 info) to honor Lise's continuing support and outreach to the lesbian community. Everyone is welcome. Luckily Orville is within commuting distance to SACWN. Lise will still be involved!

Nancy, facilitator for the Hiking SIG has decided to hang up her SACWN hiking boots, so until another SACWNite can be found to lead this group, the trudging is over. Thank you Nancy for all of your hard work over the years.

SINGLE CONNECTION

Call Misty at 481-8144 to RSVP for the PICNIC on June 17th (See Couples SIG) and for the details of the July 15th event.

FRIDAY, JUNE 23
WINE, CHEESE AND THEATER PARTY

with the LAMBDA PLAYERS PRODUCTION

LAST SUMMER AT BLUE FISH COVE

SACWN will host a Wine, Cheese and Theater Party before the Friday, June 23, 1995, performance by the Lambda Players of Last Summer at Blue Fish Cove at the Sierra 2 Theater, 2791 24th Street, Sacramento.

The pre-show party beginning at 7:00 p.m. will be held in the Green Room and Courtyard next to the theater. The ticket price will include a wine or soda bar and a variety of cheeses and hors d'oeuvres as well as a ticket to the play which begins at 8:00 p.m.. Following the play, cast members will return to the stage to take questions from the audience and discuss their role in the play.

Jane Chamber's Last Summer at Blue Fish Cove is an endearing play in the dramatic comedy genre that pulls at your heartstrings while making you laugh. Seven friends/lovers/women/lesbians come together for their summer spent annually at their favorite seaside cove. But an intruder, in the form of a recently separated straight women, as well as other unpreventable circumstances, threaten to upset their peaceful seaside gathering. You'll laugh, shed a tear or two, and maybe experience some flashes of recognition as you watch their antics and share their joys and sorrows!

Jane Chambers began her professional theatrical career in the late 1950s as an actress and playwright, working off Broadway and in coffeehouse theaters. Her first novel, Burning, was published in 1978 by Jove Press and her articles appeared in the New York Times and Harper's. Her plays have been produced off-Broadway, in community theaters and on television. She was a recipient of the Dramalogue Critics Circle Award and the Villager Award for Last Summer at Blue Fish Cove.

Jane was a founding member of the New Jersey's Women Political Caucus, serving as its President and on the National Steering Committee. She was a member of the Writer's Guild East, Dramatists Guild, Author's League, Actors Equity and the East End Gay Organization for Human Rights. She died in the early 80s of cancer.

SUCCESSFUL SACWNITE

Her parents met when her dad was stationed in the Air Force in England. Born to an English mother and a Texan father Susan Goodrich grew up living with one foot in each culture. From her birth in Waco, Texas, to the years in Alaska and England, Susan recognized that hers was an unique childhood. She credits her interest in dialects and her love of traveling to those early years moving around the country.

Her father retired in Sacramento and Susan went to CSUS. She almost majored in theater but wanted more security than she thought that life would provide. Combining a desire to help others with her interest in communication, she became a speech pathologist. After working 8 years for a school district, she has spent the last 8 years with the UC Davis Medical Center. She works with patients who have ear, nose and throat concerns including voice problems, head/neck cancer and cleft palate.

Theater is her personal love. It started in fifth grade in Alaska. She got to play Lady MacBeth in a school play and the acting bug bit her. "I've done it ever since," she admits. "I'm not an extrovert off stage, so I didn't have the confidence when I was younger to make theater my life's work. But I do love it!"

Most recently, Susan acted in the Lambda Player's production of Baby with the Bathwater. She also had roles in their productions of Company, Broadway Our Way and Cloud Nine. She has appeared at the Town Ford Museum, at CAP-PAC Dinners, with Gateway Players of Grass Valley and Miriam Gray's Acting Studio.

Combining both the personal and the professional, Susan has served as a dialect coach for several productions in Sacramento including Steel Magnolias at Garbeau's Dinner Theater, A Man for All Seasons presented by Theater El Dorado, Lysistrata by the Senior Players of American River and Our Country's Good produced by the California Stage Company.

Recently she began directing plays. "Sometimes when you are in a play, you feel the moves of another character, but you can't say anything to that actor. In directing, you are part of the creative process and can influence how the roles are played." Susan is serving as Assistant Director for Last Summer at Blue Fish Cove. "Susie Owens, the director is involved in other productions. So, I'll be running rehearsals and covering for her at times. It is an ensemble show, and getting to know the women involved is exciting."

Susan came out in her late twenties. "Before that I thought that I was bi-sexual. In my early twenties, I just focused myself on school and work. Then I began to work on defining relationships in my life in general. Now the most satisfying aspects of life are my friendships. My very first "gay" event was a SACWN meeting on February 10, 1985. It was the third organizing meeting of SACWN and it was there that I met the woman of my dreams, Jeanette, who has been my partner of the last ten years."

What is success to Susan? "I liked what May Sarton said, 'to be fully human'." Success is also to be rich, not in terms of how much you have or where you've been or even who your are, but who you have beside you, and in that I am a billionaire."

THE THIRD ANNUAL SACRAMENTO WOMEN'S GATHERING

CAMP AUGUSTA

(Sung to the tune of Camp Grenada -"Hello Mudda, Hello Fadda") With apologies to Alan Sherman

Hello Mudda, hello Sista
Here I am at Camp Augusta
I had come here seeking solace
Then I found out all the women here go braless!

First there's Sandy, she's our leader
I'd just love for you to meet her
Gives us workshifts, keeps us busy
So our hormones don't get us in a tizzy.

Her friend Carol's in the kitchen
And she gets us all to pitch in.
We do clean up, we do cookin'
And we get to do some flirtin' and some lookin'.

We go on hikes, oh Mudda, sista
Ride our bikes, oh Mudda, Sista
Had a dance
We really got to prance
But had - some time left for romance....

There's a lake here, saw a tadpole
And some undies up a flagpole.
We've got ping pong and canoeing
You just won't believe the things I've been doing!

Got a roomie in my cabin
She's real friendly, twenty seven
She's a wild one, kinda reckless
And I got a feeling I'll be late for breakfast.

Oh, there's a flowing waterfall, The Dating Game,
And volleyball, I'm glad I came
And when we tire
We all sit by the fire
And talk - of sex until we retire...

Some are young dykes, some are older
Some are shy ones, some are bolder
All these women, it's so nice here
Mudda, Sis, I think I've found my paradise here!!!

Words by Susan Goodrich.
(She has additional verses that are "naughty!"
Let's ask her to sing them at Camp Augusta!)

Sacramento Women's Gathering
July 28-30, Camp Augusta

Join us for a weekend in the pines with open air cabins, hot private showers and a waterfall that will be outstanding! We arrive at the campground on Friday, July 28th after 4 p.m. All meals are provided and each person is asked to take a work shift in the kitchen. There are organized activities (volleyball games, canoeing, a talent show?, a dance on Saturday night) as well as lots of time to enjoy the beauty of the setting. A private waterfall is within a half mile hike and offers a spectacular treat for sun worshipers. The closing circle is held at noon. We leave by 1 p.m. There is limited space for RV's (no hookups and not much privacy.) Cabins with bunk beds are available as well as tent camping. For a SWG flier, call 451-8034.

A Gift to SACWN.....
Catherine Goggia is a freelance artist in Chico. Her work can be seen in The Best Contemporary Women's Humor, Crossing Press. She is also a friend of Kathy Byrne (Successful SACWNite, November 1994) and has given us a wonderful gift - permission to print ten of her drawings/cartoons in this newsletter. The first appears on the back cover of this issue. Others will be in upcoming issues. Her work is powerful and wonderful. More to come! Thanks to Kathy for arranging this gift!

No July Issue of SACWN .. Remember, we do not print a July issue of the newsletter. We will steal away for a week of vacation during the first week of July. See you at SWG!

T-Shirt Contest (DRY)... It would be wonderful to have a design for a T-shirt to commemorate the Third Annual Sacramento Women's Gathering. Ideas? Call Sandy at 451-8034!
